THE LION

The Senior Class of
Langston University

Proudly Presents

*The 1955
Lion*

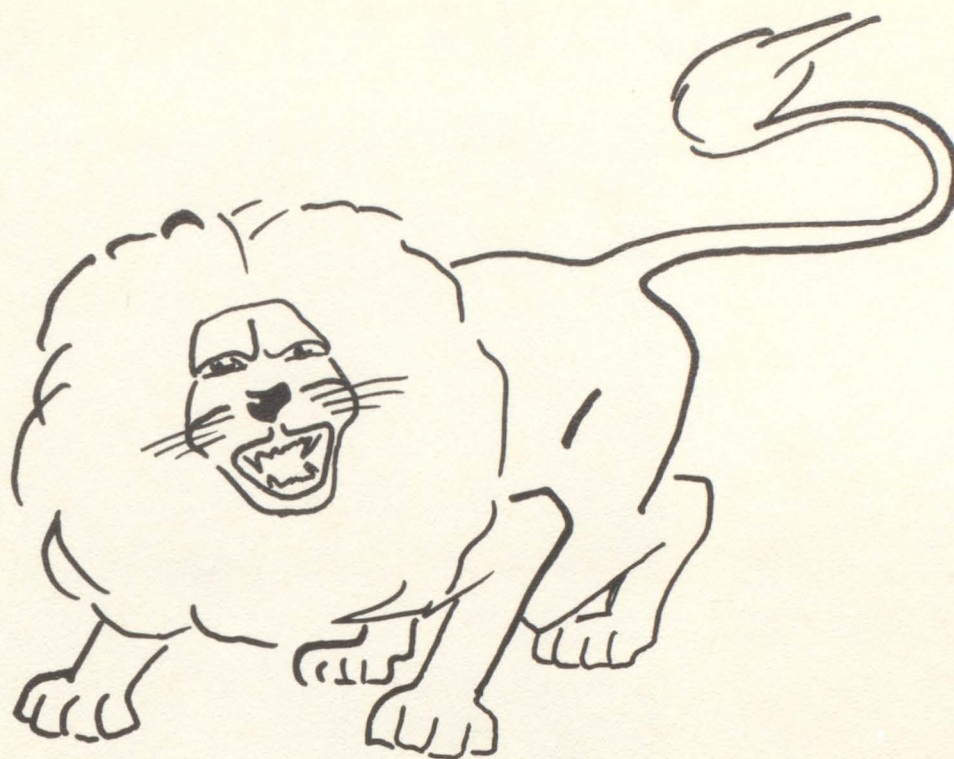

Lucius Curry, Editor -- Carl Jones, Business Manager

Langston University

Langston University, situated on a beautiful hill overlooking a vast expansion of open prairie, was established March 12, 1897 by Act of Territorial Council and House. The College, as well as the all-Negro town on the edge of which it is located, was named for the famous Negro leader, John Mercer Langston, who died in 1897.

During his life time John M. Langston was a symbol of the highest type of educational leadership. He attended Oberlin College and for many years practiced law in the city of Oberlin. He served for eleven years as member of the board of education in this famous Ohio city and was twice elected to its governing council. His deep interest in the education of his race is evidenced by the many positions of leadership he acted in connection with it.

Langston University's continuous progress is the largest and most influential reminder of the life and achievements of this worthy man.

Foreword

Again, the senior class presents "THE LION." This ferocious animal, who has been suffering from insomnia since 1953, has at last awakened -- never to sleep no more.

Included in this edition is a portion of everything that makes up our University. We sincerely hope that you, our alumni, students and friends, will enjoy this book from cover to cover.

DR. G. L. HARRISON

February 24, 1955

TO THE STUDENTS, FACULTY, ALUMNI AND FRIENDS OF LANGSTON UNIVERSITY

First, I want to commend the senior class for the business-like manner in which they have gone about to publish this ANNUAL. The experience gained as students here, along with the experience gained in working out this publication will be of inestimable value in years to come.

This issue of the LION is dedicated to the students of Langston University, whom I consider one of the most cooperative student bodies to be found in any of the colleges in this country. I have valid reasons to feel confident that the Langston students will compare favorably with any similar group of college students anywhere in the United States.

To the many friends of Langston University, our institution is now going through a trial period. The famous Supreme Court decision of May 17, 1954, has brought about the necessity for many social and philosophical changes. All of these are a challenge to the intelligence of those of us who plan the present and future course of Langston University. We feel certain that with the help of all of the students, faculty and the many friends, Langston University will meet the challenge.

Again I want to wish the utmost success for the senior class of 1955, as each member becomes a staunch and faithful alumnus of Langston University.

Sincerely yours

G. L. Harrison

L. G. MOORE
Dean of Instruction

The really great university is the principal resource from which men's minds can be equipped to battle against the forces of ignorance and prejudice which are forever reaching out of the mire to destroy the human soul. Our purpose here at Langston is special concern for the wholesome pursuit and the transmission of knowledge, that knowledge which is the basis of genuine wisdom and the making of a worthwhile life.

R. P. PERRY
Administrative Dean

We are living in the most crucial age of our history. Good human relations throughout the world are necessary for the survival of the race. Technical knowledge is so great until mankind cannot afford to permit the continuation and growth of hatred, strife, distrust and other breeders of war which will certainly employ such knowledge for destructive purposes. It is not likely that we can survive an international conflict in which the technical knowledge of this century is fully employed. This makes it mandatory for all of us to become students of human relations and search for the tools of peace and brotherhood. Let us take full advantage of the opportunity that is ours to work incessantly for what might be the salvation of the human race.

THE DAIRY STAFF participates in all college activities. Since 1949, several members have been employed and are now employed by the Dairy Extension Department of Oklahoma A and M College as herd supervisors; some are employed by our major dairy plants in the state; some are fastly becoming recognized in the field of Artificial Breeding of dairy cattle; and some are recognized in our various National Judging contests. These are only a few of the many doors that have been opened to our members of THE DAIRY STAFF.

THE DAIRY STAFF, started in the Fall of 1949, is composed of students majoring for the most part in Agriculture and the Natural Sciences with interest in Dairy Farming, and who are connected with the operations of the Langston University's Modern Dairy Unit. THE DAIRY STAFF provides for the strengthening of relations with men in the field of dairying and education outside of the classroom through the operations of the Langston University Dairy Industry.

Langston University Song

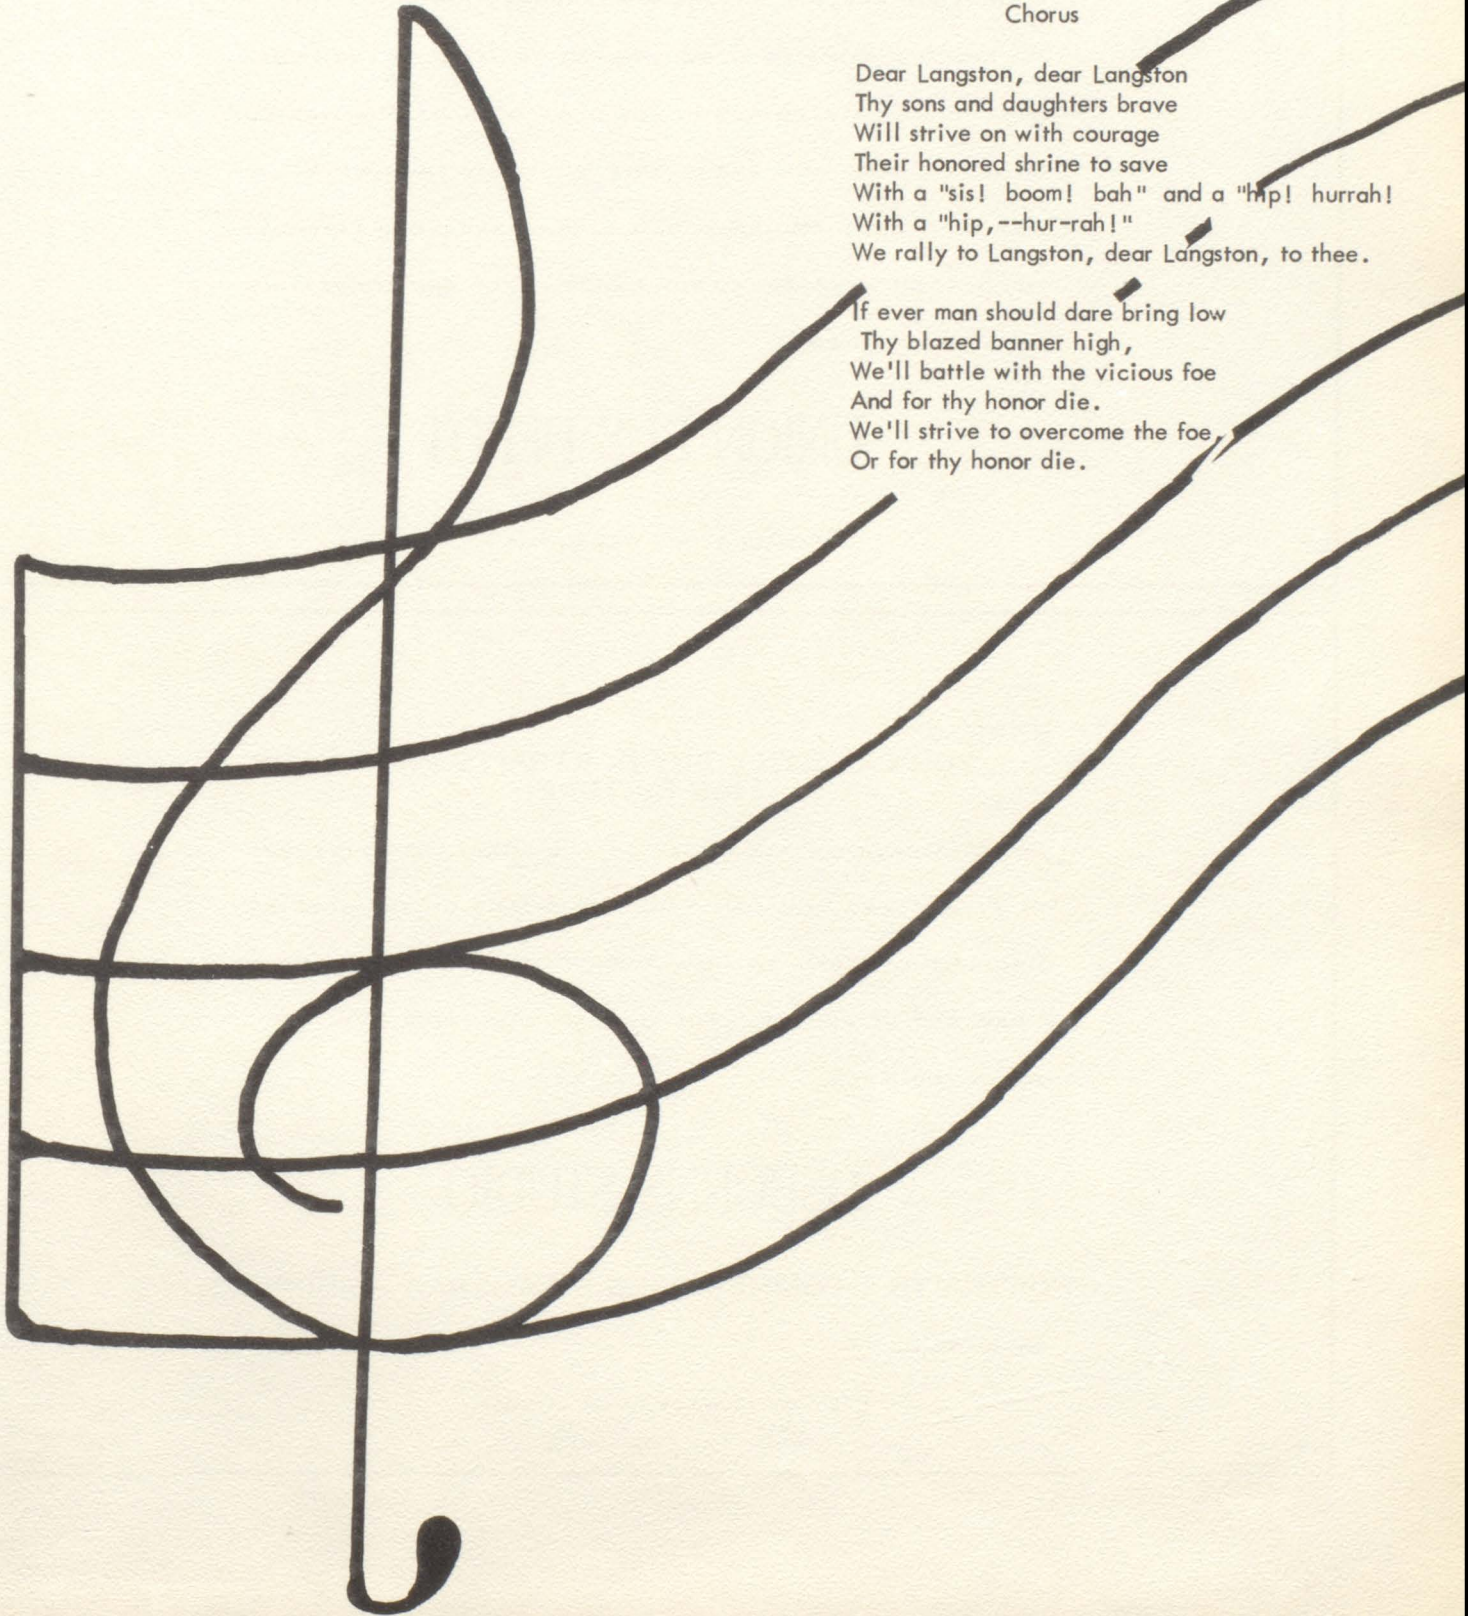

DEAR LANGSTON

High on a throne with royal mien,
Our Hope and our Mother stand;
All gaze with pride upon the scene
High o'er the Silv'ry strand;
All gaze with hope upon the scene
Where our hope and our Mother stand.

Chorus

Dear Langston, dear Langston
Thy sons and daughters brave
Will strive on with courage
Their honored shrine to save
With a "sis! boom! bah" and a "hip! hurrah!
With a "hip, --hur-rah!"
We rally to Langston, dear Langston, to thee.

If ever man should dare bring low
Thy blazed banner high,
We'll battle with the vicious foe
And for thy honor die.
We'll strive to overcome the foe,
Or for thy honor die.

● Almost a quarter of a century has passed since USECO published its first school annual. As we review those pages of yesteryear, a pleasant thought comes to mind—on some tomorrow this, the nineteen hundred and fifty-five edition, will take its place in your heart as a pictorial history of the "good ole' days."

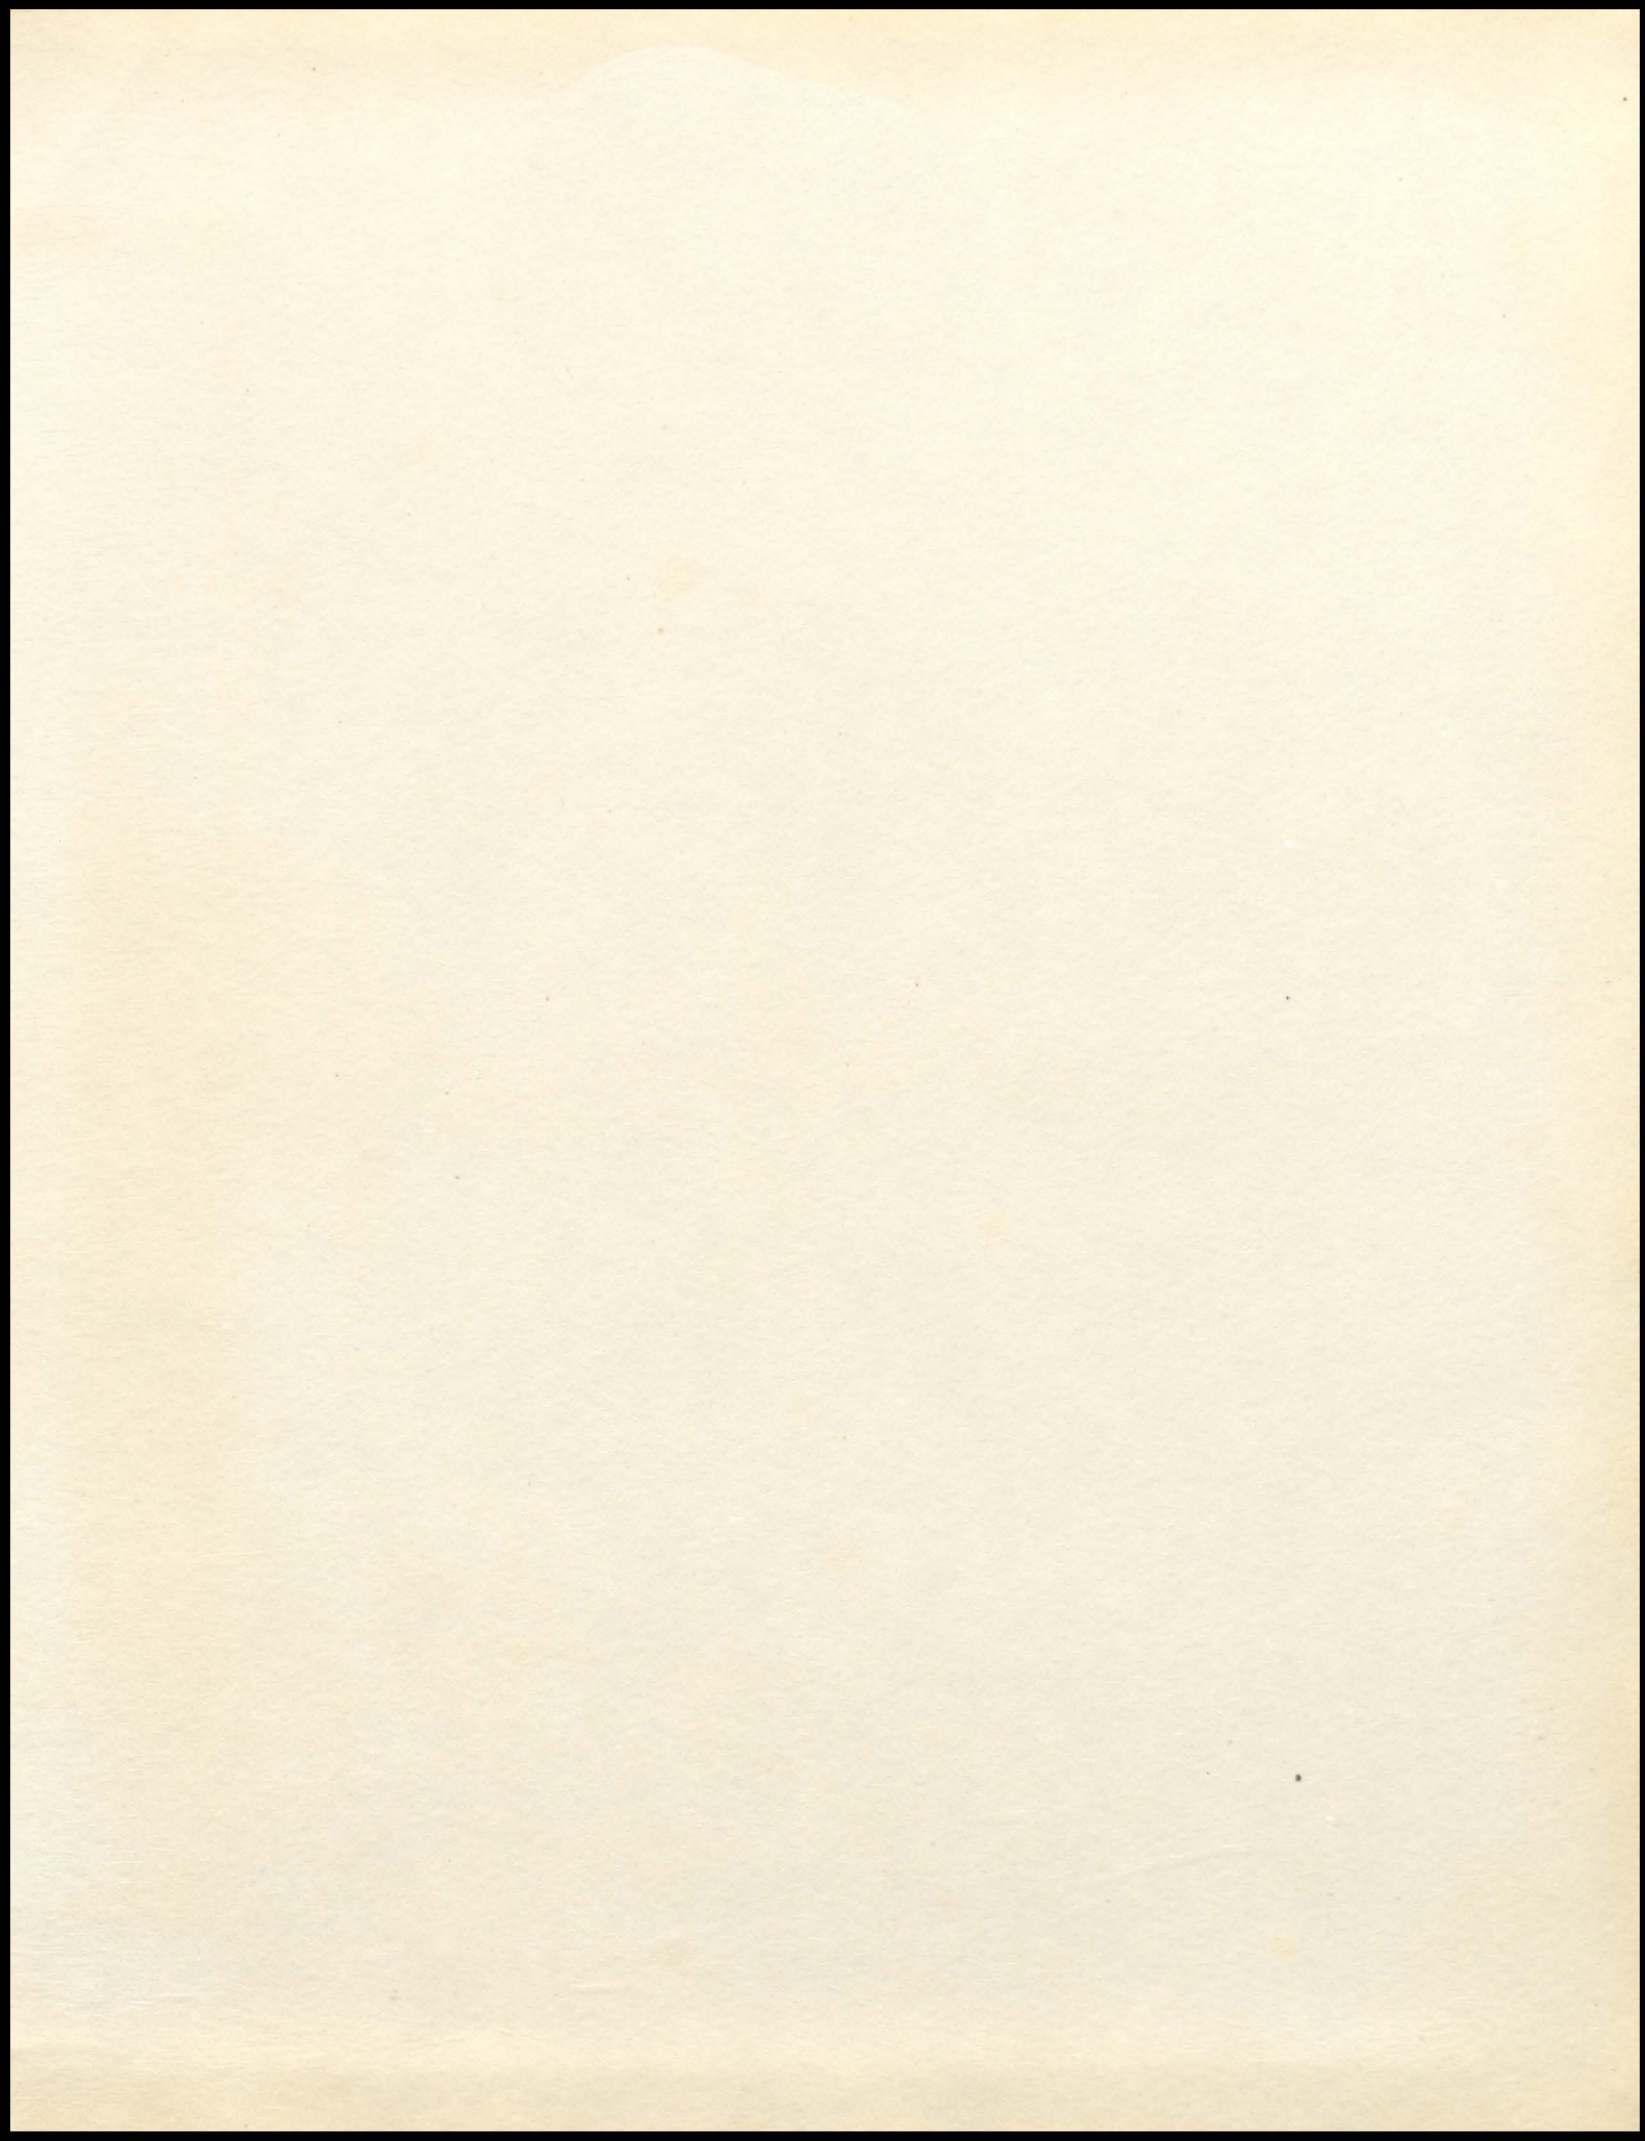

We know this book will increase in value with the passing of each year, and are honored to have played a part in recording it.
