PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPT.
Langston, Oklahoma

FEBRUARY 9-16, 1967

The University Council, an informal organization of students and faculty, will meet at seven o'clock on the evening of Thursday, February 9, in the Ballroom of the Student Union. The Council, chaired by President Hale, will be composed of student members of standing committees and faculty and administrators who make up the University Senate. Any member of the University family -- students, faculty, or staff is welcome to come and join in the discussion. The Council's purpose is to improve communication between the various parts of the University.

Beginning the second semester of this school year, Mr. Chelsea Tipton, who has been on leave to study toward the Doctor's degree at the University of Oklahoma for the past year and a half, has returned to duty as the new chairman of the department of music. Welcome back, Mr. Tipton.

The Assembly and Cultural Relations Committee is presenting a Faculty Recital featuring Janietta B. Smith, Soprano; John L. Smith, Tubaist; and Mardele L. Maryott, Accompanist, on February 10, at 7:00 p. m. in the I. W. Young Auditorium.

Departmental meetings scheduled each second Friday in the month will be held February 10 at 10 A. M.

The basketball team will play two home games this week: East Central on the 10th and Southeastern on the 11th. Starting time is 7:30 p. m.

The 1967 fund-raising campaign for the LANGSTON UNIVERSITY DEVELOPMENT FOUNDATION is under way. Contributions are needed to match the $33,333 Sloan Foundation Grant. The faculty and staff goal is $7,500 and a $1,500 goal has been set for students. When your group or class chairman contacts you, please make your contribution to the Foundation. Let us demonstrate to persons outside the University family that WE believe in the worth and value of the Foundation.

The following student recruiters will be on campus during the week: February 13, Richard Griffith, teacher recruiter from Kansas City, Missouri; February 15, Pan American Petroleum Company, Tulsa, recruiting accounting majors; February 16, Holloman Air Force Base, New Mexico, recruiting electronics and math majors; and, O. M. Jackson, U. S. Forest Service, Albuquerque, New Mexico, recruiting business management and teaching careers.

The Annual Choral Festival will be held February 11. Five hundred students from nine Oklahoma high schools are expected to attend. The guest clinician will be Dr. O. A. Fuller from Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Missouri.

The University Chaplain, Dr. Jno. W. Coleman, will deliver the Morning Meditation message on Sunday, February 12. Enrich your week's activities by attending worship services.

The Sunday movie will feature "All the Way" and the Wednesday movie will be "Move Over, Darling".

The Sweetheart's Ball will be held Valentine's Day, February 14, in the Ballroom of the Student Union. This gala event, in which Langston Coeds look their loveliest, is one of the most memorable social events of the spring semester. This year, the Ball will be semi-formal.

In last week's Letter, an announcement was made concerning the appearance of Dr. F. D. Moon as guest speaker for the weekly Assembly Program and a seminar to be led by Major William Rose. Instead of the dates mentioned in last week's Letter, please observe the following changes: Dr. F. D. Moon will speak during the Assembly Program on February 15 and, on the same date, Major Rose will lead a seminar discussion on recent developments in race relations in the State. The Seminar will be held in the Ballroom of the Student Union at 1 p. m. All students are invited to be present.

There will be a Pool Tournament February 18, 1967, in the Game Room of the Student Union. Persons who would like to participate should pay a fee of 25¢ by February 15. All interested persons may contact Mr. L. K. Malone.

The Great Books Discussion Group for students will meet Monday, February 13, at 7 p. m. in the Faculty Lounge (Library). All students are invited to come and join in the discussion of great books by authors of literary repute.

There has been an active case of tuberculosis on campus and many students and faculty members have been directly exposed. For this reason, Dr. R. LeRoy Carpenter and other Oklahoma State Health officials will be on campus during the week of February 13. All persons who have not been tested for tuberculosis in the past ten months will need to take a tuberculin skin test.
