Religious Emphasis Week, March 5-9, 1972.

Theme: "Where There is a Vision, There is Perspective"

The 1972 observance of Religious Emphasis Week is planned as a complement to the Diamond Jubilee Celebration of Langston University.

This year an added feature of the week will be the availability of guest leaders and consultants for class visitations. Requests for speakers can be made by class instructors through the office of the University Chaplain. Because of the limitation of speakers all requests must be filled on a "first come first served" basis.

The speakers and their availability for class visitation are as follows:

Reverend Harry S. Wright, Dallas, Texas, Monday through Wednesday eleven o'clock and two o'clock through four o'clock.

Dr. J. Castina, Jackson, Tulsa, Oklahoma, Monday through Wednesday eleven o'clock and two o'clock through four o'clock.

Reverend Curtis A., Brown, Sandusky, Ohio, Monday through Wednesday, eleven o'clock and two o'clock through four o'clock.

Reverend Bill, Skeehan, Tulsa, Oklahoma, Monday and Tuesday, eleven o'clock and two o'clock through four o'clock.

Reverend Goree, James, Guthrie, Oklahoma, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, nine o'clock.

Iota Chapter, Sigma Gamma Rho, is sponsoring a Teacher-Faculty Talent Show on March 3, 1972, at 8:00 p.m. Tickets on sale in Gandy Hall, Room 204.

Dr. A. Washington will be presented as a guest speaker at OSU on February 23. He will discuss the "Slime Mold."
