ITEMS OF INTEREST

Mrs. G. Allen is asking all campus organizations (sororities, fraternities, clubs, etc.) to make a donation to the Red Cross. Donations may be presented in the Office of Out-of-Class Activities, located in Sanford Hall Annex.

Any young lady interested in running for the title of "Miss Jabberwock" or "Little Miss Jabberwock" should contact any member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. The winner will be the recipient of a scholarship.

In honor of Langston University's 75th Anniversary, the Founders Week Committee is sponsoring a Creative Contest in three categories: Art, Music, and Writing. All students are eligible to compete. Monetary awards will be given in each of the three areas: First Prize--$50.00, Second Prize--$30.00, Third Prize--$20.00. The theme for the contest is "Seventy-Fifth Year: Focusing on the Future." Interested students should contact the chairman of the department of the area in which they are interested in entering. All material must be submitted by March 3.

FOUND: Class ring. Owner should contact Public Relations Office and identify.

FOR SENIORS IN EDUCATION: The National Teacher Examination will be administered Saturday, April 8, 1972 at 8:00 a.m. in Room 206, Hamilton Hall. The deadline for signing up is March 16, 1972. Registration packets may be obtained in Rooms A-14 and A-15, Sanford Hall Annex.

The Ladies of Alpha Zeta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. congratulate Langston University on the observance of its 75th Anniversary. We are proud to be a part of this great institution, and we know that the next seventy-five years will be even greater. "Right On, Langston University."
