

4-7-1967

The Langston Letter April 7-14, 1967

Langston University

Follow this and additional works at: http://dclu.langston.edu/archives_langston_letter

Recommended Citation

Langston University, "The Langston Letter April 7-14, 1967" (1967). Langston Letter. Paper 49.
http://dclu.langston.edu/archives_langston_letter/49

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives at Digital Commons @ Langston University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Langston Letter by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Langston University. For more information, please contact jblewis@langston.edu.

The-Langston Letter

PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPT.
Langston, Oklahoma

The LANGSTON LETTER is published each Thursday primarily for the interest of the Langston University faculty, staff, and students.

APRIL 7-14, 1967

APRIL 6

The Langston University Concert Choir will be seen on Channel 13, KETA-TV from Oklahoma City and Channel 11, KOED-TV from Tulsa on April 6 and 13 at 9:30 p.m. These are Oklahoma's educational television stations and both programs are a part of the "Festival of Arts" series.

APRIL 7

Ten a.m. is the hour for the regular monthly meeting of each of the four classes. The meeting place for each class is as follows: Freshmen, Auditorium; Sophomores, 315 Science and Agriculture Building; Juniors, Page Hall, Little Theater; and Seniors, 101 Science and Agriculture Building.

APRIL 7-8

The Langston University Chapter of the Student Government Association will host the Eighteenth Annual Oklahoma Intercollegiate Student Association Convention to be held on campus April 7 and 8. The theme of the Association is: "Why O.I.S.A." For special entertainment, a talent show featuring talents from Langston and other state universities will be held in the I. W. Young Auditorium, April 7 at 8:30 p.m. All students are invited to attend.

APRIL 8--CHANGE OF LIBRARY SCHEDULE

Some students have expressed the desire to have the Library open on Saturday during the afternoon instead of morning hours as has been the procedure. In an effort to make the facilities of the Library available to students during the week-end, an experiment with the library schedule will be introduced as of April 8, 1967. Beginning April 8, the Library will be open from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., each Saturday throughout the month of April. At the end of April, an evaluation will be made of the experiment.

APRIL 9

Sunday's Morning Meditations will be the occasion to observe Women's Day on campus. Guest speaker for the occasion will be Mrs. Robert H. Alexander of Oklahoma City. Following the Meditation hour at 11:15, a Workshop will be held in the Student Union. The topic for discussion will be "The Changing Sex Mores."

At 2:30 p.m. in the Reception Room of University Women, Mrs. John Dunn of Norman Oklahoma will present a "Play Reading". Mrs. Dunn's appearance is in cooperation with the University's Residence Halls Program.

The movie at 4 p.m. will be "Arabesque".

APRIL 10--UNIVERSITY COUNCIL TO MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the University Council will be held at 7:00 o'clock on the evening of Monday, April 10. This meeting will be held in the I. W. Young Auditorium and all students, faculty and staff are urged to be present. President Hale will discuss matters of interest to the entire Langston.

APRIL 12

By special arrangement with the Jewish Chautauqua Society, Rabbi Norbert L. Rosenthal of the Temple Israel, Tulsa, will speak during the regular assembly hour, 10:00 a.m. Rabbi Rosenthal will speak on the subject, "The Book of Job."

4 p.m. The Wednesday Movie will be "What's New Pussy Cat?"

APRIL 14

Departmental Meetings which include faculty and students will be held Friday morning, at ten o'clock. These meetings are designed to provide opportunities for planning and discussion of solutions to departmental problems.

As a part of the Science and life Program, Dr. Rutledge of Oklahoma State University will be on campus as a visiting Physics Teacher. Dr. Rutledge will hold the following seminars: 8 a.m., "Principles of the Laser"; 10 a.m.--"Recent Theories Concerning the Relativity." A noon luncheon has also been planned so that all interested faculty and staff members may meet and visit with Dr. Rutledge.

NOTES OF INTEREST

President Receives Re-Appointment

Governor Dewey Bartlett has re-appointed President William H. Hale to a new three-year term on the Human Rights Commission for the State of Oklahoma.

LU Grad First in the Nation

Carolyn G. Miles, a 1966 graduate and an honor graduate in sociology, has become the first federal employee in the nation hired under the new Civil Service Regulations. Miss Miles was hired as an administrative assistant in the Federal Aviation Agency Aeronautical Center, Oklahoma City. She was employed under a change in requirements which permits studies to be assigned an eligible Civil Service rating without taking the federal service entrance examination.

Governor's Wife to Speak

Mrs. Dewey F. Bartlett, wife of Governor Bartlett, will speak at Sixth Grade Day Assembly on April 29 at 10:00 a.m. Mrs. Bartlett will be a great source of inspiration and motivation for these young people.

In Memoriam

Funeral services for Miss Blanche C. Smith, a 1937 graduate of the University and the sister of Mrs. Edith Maloy, Secretary to Dean I. A. Breaux, were held Saturday, April 1 at 1 p.m. At the time of her passing, Miss Smith was employed as an instructor at the Langston Elementary School.