PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPT.
Langston, Oklahoma

The LANGSTON LETTER is published each Thursday primarily for the interest of the Langston University faculty, staff, and students.

APRIL 15-21, 1967

APRIL 15

Career Day will be observed on campus. The morning session is scheduled for ten o'clock in the I.W. Young Auditorium. All students are asked to attend this session. Mr. Everett P. O'Neal, Businessman, Kansas City, Missouri, will be guest speaker. Considerable information and inspiration can be gained from hearing this dynamic personality who is held in national high esteem for his contribution to business and civic affairs.

APRIL 16

Morning Meditations will be held at ten o'clock. The message will be brought by the University Chaplain. Plan now to attend worship services on Sunday.

Residence Halls Program. Mr. Norman Paulu, Violinist, will present a concert in Sanford Hall at 2:30 p.m. Mr. Paulu, who is a member of the Oklahoma City Symphony Orchestra, is a favorite with Oklahoma audiences.

Movie. "Sunday at the Movies" will feature "Madame X".

Fine Arts Series. Eugene Haynes, piano virtuoso, will appear in Concert in the I. W. Young Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. This will be the second successive year that Mr. Haynes has been invited to the campus--an indication of the acclaim he gained from his previous appearance.

APRIL 17

The Great Books Discussion group for students will meet in the Faculty Lounge of the Library at 6:15 p.m. The book for discussion will be Voltaire's Candide.

APRIL 18

Oriental Art Exhibition. Mr. Sam Oklinetzky will be on campus to talk about Oriental Art at 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 and 2:00 p.m. An invitation is extended to any class or faculty member to visit the gallery at that time.

Residence Halls Program. Mr. Willis D. Warren, Coordinator of Career Development Center, will speak to the men of Brown Hall on "Job Etiquette and Know-How", following their regular residence hall meeting.

English Department. The English Department is sponsoring the annual W.C.T.U. Oratorical Contest at 7:30 p.m. If there are at least five contestants, $90.00 in cash prizes will be awarded. Orations emphasizing the importance of TOTAL ABSTINENCE should be between 1000 and 1200 words in length. See bulletin boards for further information.

APRIL 19

Library Week. The G. L. Harrison Library staff will sponsor the assembly program in observance of National Library Week. The speaker for the occasion will be Mrs. Cavanna Clark of the Oklahoma City Public School System.

Movie. Warner Brothers production of the brilliant La Scala production of Giacomo Puccini's immortal "La Boheme" will be presented at 7 p.m. in the I. W. Young Auditorium. Price of admission is fifty cents. The complete musical and dramatic ranges of "La Boheme", probably the world's most popular opera, have been captured on film for the first time. The movie is in Technicolor. Any student who purchases a ticket for "La Boheme" will be admitted to the movie Sunday, April 23, 1967 without charge.

APRIL 20

Professional Faculty Meeting will be held at 4 p.m. in Room 312 of the Administration Building.

APRIL 21

Mrs. E. Kendall will show a continuation of her colored slides to German and Religious students in the Audio Visual Room at 10:00 a.m. At 9:00 a.m., she will discuss "Religion in Germany" with Dr. Jno. W. Coleman's class in the Audio Visual Room. Interested listeners welcome.
