MAY 6

Ninth Grade Day. This will be another big day on campus with the visit of the state's Ninth Grade students. Ninth Grade Day is an extension of the University's efforts to make young people more aware of the advantages of continuing their educational pursuits. Registration is scheduled for 8:30 to 9:45 a.m. President Hale will deliver the address during the ten o'clock Assembly Program.

Graduate Record Examination. The examination will begin at 7:45 a.m. Contact Mr. Willis D. Warren in the Career Development Center for further information.

MAY 7

Upward Bound. An orientation workshop for the faculty of the summer session of the Upward Bound Program will be held in the Faculty Lounge of the William H. Hale Student Union May 6 and 7.

MAY 7

National Teacher Examination. This examination will also begin at 7:45 and Mr. Warren should be contacted if additional information is needed.

Morning Meditations. Worship services are scheduled for ten o'clock in the Auditorium. Guest speaker for Morning Meditations will be Dr. Guy Bellamy, a member of the Civil Rights Commission of Oklahoma.

Residence Halls Program. David Vanderkooi, principal cellist with the Oklahoma City Symphony Orchestra, will be presented in concert, Sunday afternoon, at two-thirty o'clock. The University Men Dormitory will sponsor the event, which will be held in the Student Union Ballroom. Everyone is invited to attend.

Senior Recital. The Langston University Department of Music will present Miss Sandra Wallace, Soprano, in Senior Recital at 7:30 p.m. in the I. W. Young Auditorium.

Movie. The Sunday Movie, "A Man Could Get Killed", will be shown at 4 p.m.

MAY 8

Final examinations for graduating seniors will be held May 8-10.

MAY 10

The Weekly Assembly Program at 10 a.m. will be sponsored by the Social Science Department. The guest speaker will be The Honorable Floyd L. Jackson, Chief Justice of the Oklahoma Supreme Court.

YWCA. The Young Women's Christian Association will meet at 6 p.m. in the Counseling Room of University Women. The purpose of the meeting is to reorganize the chapter and elect officers. Young ladies interested in joining and working with the "Y" now and in the approaching school year are cordially invited to attend-- your support is greatly needed.

A LION'S ROAR TO . . .

Mrs. J. B. Manning, Assistant Professor in the Department of English and Modern Languages, who has published a very scholarly and comprehensive guide for writing research papers, "Handbook of Directions for Preparing Research Papers." The Handbook is available at the Langston University Bookstore.

Bruce Nathaniel Crump, a mathematics major from Enid, who has been admitted for candidacy for the degree of Master of Arts in Teaching at Harvard University to begin June, 1967. Bruce qualified for appointment as an intern at Harvard under the University's Harvard-Newton Summer Program.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

As a part of the Fine Arts Series, the New York State Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of William Penn Hacker, presented a concert in the I. W. Young Auditorium on the evening of May 3. The Orchestra, which is composed of professional musicians who reside in the State of New York and who are members of leading major orchestras in the nation, provided an evening of enchanting delight for the Langston University family, visitors, and friends. The audience expressed its appreciation by giving the Orchestra a standing ovation.

Newly elected officers of the Student Senate are as follows: President, J. Brent Driver; Vice President, Melvin McClellan; Corresponding Secretary, Rosalyn Luster; Recording Secretary, Cleta Powell; Treasurer, J. B. Thompson; and Councilman-at-Large, Willie H. Clark. Peggy Latimer was elected "Miss Langston" for 1967-68.

"Concert Time", a recording (Stereo-LP), has been released by the Langston University Concert Choir and Concert Band. The record is available for $4.25. Interested persons should contact Mr. William B. Garcia, Instructor, Department of Music. Proceeds from the sale of the album will be donated to the Langston University Development Foundation.

The University Council will hold its May meeting on Monday evening, May 8, at eight o'clock, in the Ballroom of the Student Union.
