

6-16-1967

The Langston Letter June 16-23, 1967

Langston University

Follow this and additional works at: http://dclu.langston.edu/archives_langston_letter

Recommended Citation

Langston University, "The Langston Letter June 16-23, 1967" (1967). Langston Letter. Paper 71.
http://dclu.langston.edu/archives_langston_letter/71

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives at Digital Commons @ Langston University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Langston Letter by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Langston University. For more information, please contact jblewis@langston.edu.

The-Langston Letter

PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPT.
Langston, Oklahoma

JUNE 16-23, 1967

JUNE 16-17

Upward Bound. "Moonlight A-Go-Go" has been planned. This affair will begin at 8:30 p. m. on Friday. On Saturday, June 17, Upward Bound students will leave the campus by chartered bus to spend a cultural and entertaining afternoon in Oklahoma City. The trip will include a visit to the Planetarium and Art Center; dinner at Bryant Center; and to climax a perfect day, the group will see Columbia Pictures spectacular release "The Taming of the Shrew" (selected for the 1967 British Royal Performance) starring Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton.

Student Social. College students will be able to relax from the "strenuous ordeal of studying" by spending a few hours in socializing in the William H. Hale Student Union Friday and Saturday evenings. Friday, the affair will be held from 8:30-10:30 o'clock and on Saturday from 8:30-11:30.

JUNE 18

Religious Activities. You are invited to attend Sunday School at nine o'clock and Morning Meditations at ten o'clock in the I. W. Young Auditorium. Guest speaker for Morning Meditations will be The Reverend George S. Taylor, Supervisor of Field Youth Counseling Services of the Department of Public Welfare. Reverend Taylor is also pastor of the First Baptist Church, Luther, Oklahoma.

"How-to-Study" Clinic has been scheduled for Upward Bound students in the Student Union at 4 p. m.

Movie. "Stagecoach", starring Ann Margaret, Red Buttons, and Michael Conner, will be the featured attraction in the I. W. Young Auditorium at 7 p. m.

JUNE 20

An Informal Gathering for Upward Bound Students will be held in the Student Union from 8:00 to 9:30 p. m.

JUNE 21

The Movie for the evening will be CLEOPATRA starring . . . Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor. This much publicized movie will begin at 7 p. m.

JUNE 23

The Friday Evening Social Affair, "College Top '40' Review" will be held in the William H. Hale Student Union at 8:30-10:30 p. m.

(OVER)

ITEMS OF INTEREST. . .

Dr. William E. Anderson, former Langston University Professor of English, Athletic Director and Head Coach, died June 8, 1967, in Elizabeth City, North Carolina, where he was serving as Dean of Elizabeth City State College.

As a tribute to this distinguished scholar and educator, the Langston University Football Stadium, Anderson Field, was named in his honor.

* * * * *

Private First Class Kenneth Charles Williams, a 1965 graduate of the University, was recently wounded in his right leg during an operation Quang Tri, Republic of North Vietnam. He is now recovering in the U. S. Naval Hospital, Ward 5, Memphis, Tennessee.

* * * * *

Troy Lee Loftis, a former student at Langston University, will depart for Rome, Italy, in July to begin a two-year assignment as a communications clerk at the American Embassy.

Loftis is presently in Washington, D. C., attending a three-week orientation course at the State Department's Foreign Service Institute. After completion of the course, Loftis will receive further training in the Department's communications procedures before going to Rome.

* * * * *

Edward H. Lowe, also a former student at the University, to become a member of the Governor's State Technical Assistance Office Staff. Lowe, a retired Army officer, is currently employed as a court probation counselor with the Oklahoma County Children's Court. Since retiring from the Army in 1956, Lowe also has operated his own business at Muskogee, and was employed six years at the Federal Aviation Agency Aeronautical Center at Oklahoma City.

* * * * *

Twenty-two Langston University students were four-pointers for the second semester. These honor students, automatically, will receive full tuition scholarships from the Langston University Development Foundation.

* * * * *

Grants Received Recently.

$15,956 for Agricultural Research

7,906 Library Grant under Title II of the Higher Education Act of 1965

* * * * *

* * * * *

**