ITEMS OF INTERESTS . . .

Movies??? The new screen for showing movies in the auditorium has not arrived (the old one cannot be used). However, to provide some entertainment for your Sunday afternoon enjoyment, 16 mm. films have been ordered and plans are underway to show these films--without charge-- Sunday, September 15,

Kudos to Mrs. Ella Parker Morgan, Langston University Catalog Librarian, who has been awarded the Certificate of Merit for distinguished service in librarianship by the Dictionary of International Biography. She has been included among the biographees in the recently published edition of this book.

What's in a name?. In answer to the many inquiries concerning the new word coined by President William H. Hale and mentioned in his formal Opening Convocation Address, here it is:AFROEURICAN--pronounced Af'ró-yoor-ə'kən.

Announcements for the weekly LANGSTON LETTER should be in the Office of Development-Public Relations (Room 124 Page Library Annex) no later than Wednesday noon of each week. We invite you to use this media for publicizing news concerning your organization, division, or department.

Kudos to Mrs. Suzanne Robinson, a registered nurse on the Health Service staff, who was elected President of Oklahoma State Nurses Association for Logan County.
