

11-10-1975

The Langston Letter November 10-16, 1975

Langston University

Follow this and additional works at: http://dclu.langston.edu/archives_langston_letter

Recommended Citation

Langston University, "The Langston Letter November 10-16, 1975" (1975). Langston Letter. Paper 112.
http://dclu.langston.edu/archives_langston_letter/112

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives at Digital Commons @ Langston University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Langston Letter by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Langston University. For more information, please contact jblewis@langston.edu.

Langston University Newsletter

OFFICE OF DEVELOPMENT AND UNIVERSITY RELATIONS
BOX 719, LANGSTON, OKLAHOMA 73050

ROOM 124 PAGE HALL ANNEX
PHONE (405) 466-2281 EXT. 261 or 262

November 10-16, 1975

INTERVIEWS THIS WEEK

Monday, November 10--City of Tulsa Police Department, 9-5, all areas

Thursday, November 13--Standard Oil Company of Indiana, 9 to 5, Business Administration majors.

MEETINGS

Thursday, November 13--Class meetings, 10 a.m.; Brown Bag Lunch Film Day, 12 to 1 p.m., Room 204, Page Hall Annex, "East African Travels," presented by Black Heritage Center/Learning Resources Center

Saturday, November 15--Langston vs. Texas Southern, Houston, Texas, 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, November 16--10 a.m., Morning Meditations, Speaker, Dr. John Coleman, University Chaplain (Auroras in charge)

ITEMS OF INTEREST

The Alphas of Beta Kappa Chapter presented a religious musical festival in Hargrove Music Hall Nov. 5. Special guests were The Spiritual Harmonizers of Boley, and Harmonies for Christ. Also, Beta Kappa featured its own "Choir of Angels".

Deadline for scheduling events to be included in the printed Black Heritage Week program is 5 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 12, in Room 208, Moore Hall. Each group wishing to participate should have a faculty sponsor, according to Dr. A.L. Fisher, Chairman of the Social Science Department.

Mr. James Simpson, Director of Fund Development and University Relations, attended a Bicentennial Seminar at the University of Oklahoma, Nov. 2-4.

Radio Station KALU schedule: Monday through Friday, 4-7 p.m.; Saturday, 3-7 p.m.; 90.7 FM.

The Fall meeting of the Oklahoma Academy of Science will be held at Tulsa University Nov. 14. Dr. Ephraim Wall, Professor of Physical Science, will be chairman of the Science Education Section. He is a member of the executive committee of the Oklahoma Academy of Science.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

The Archonian Pledge Club of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. will sponsor a Dance & Stomp Show 9 p.m. to 12 p.m. Nov. 11, at the Student Union. Admission is 25 cents.

Free transportation is provided to Muhammad's Temple of Islam in Oklahoma City every Sunday. For more information, contact Bro. Alan X (Ryles) at 106-C Breaux Hall.

A Graduate School Seminar will be held 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Nov. 12, at the Student Union. Juniors and seniors in all areas are invited. Schools sending representatives include Central State, East Central, University of Oklahoma Law School, University of Illinois, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, and Southwestern State.

Joyce Jackson and John Harrison, TV personalities on KOCO, Oklahoma City, will present a seminar for Communication students at 10 a.m. and 11 a.m. Nov. 10, in Rooms 200 and 204, in Page Hall.

FREE FINE DAY--Mrs. Ella P. Morgan announces that Nov. 13 is Free Fine Day, from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., at G. Lamar Harrison Library.

Dr. Epralm Wall, Department of Physical Science, attended the College Chemistry Conference at Shelby State Community College, Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 31-Nov. 1. The conference focused on industrial chemical curriculum and allied programs.

Dr. Thomas Cole, Chairman, Department of Chemistry, Atlanta University, talked on "Recent Advances in Cubane Chemistry," at a Nov. 6 seminar in Hamilton Hall. He is the son of former Wiley College president, Dr. Thomas Cole Sr., Dean of Academic Affairs at Florida U. The seminar was sponsored by Langston and Oklahoma State University and supported by the AMMOCO Foundation.

Dr. Alta Watson, Associate Professor of Education, has been named a faculty coordinator for the Scholar-Leadership Enrichment Program. The program is designed to bring the state's best seniors and graduate students together with some of the nation's most renowned scholars in special interdisciplinary seminars to be conducted at the University of Oklahoma. The visiting experts also will present informal talks and public addresses.

"The Tumult and The Shouting," by Dr. Thomas Pawley, will be presented at 8 p.m. Nov. 11, 12, 13 and 14, in the Dust Bowl Theater (back entrance of I.W. Young Auditorium). There is limited seating and students, faculty and staff may pick up reservations in the Communication Department office, beginning at 9 a.m. Nov. 10. Admission is free.

Dr. Wessylyne A. Simpson, Chairman of the Faculty Handbook Revision Committee, announces there will be a meeting at 10 a.m. Nov. 13 in the Curriculum Library of Moore Hall. All concerned faculty persons should submit their suggestions (in writing) to the committee prior to this date. Committee members are Dr. D.E. Gaffney, Dr. M.L. Slothower, Dr. Wm. Franks, and Dr. Chet Sample.

Kelth Northington, 1975 graduate in Business Administration, writes: "I am truly grateful to the LU Development Foundation for its assistance while I attended Langston. Allow this contribution to express my gratitude . . . This year's Homecoming had the largest crowd I've ever seen. It seems that Langston is progressing in many ways." Northington is with Phillips Petroleum in Bartlesville. His contribution to the LU Development Foundation was earmarked to the Business Administration Department to be used for a scholarship.