URGENT ANNOUNCEMENT!!!

STUDENTS must CLEAR ACCOUNTS

All students MUST CLEAR their accounts in the Office of the Business Manager IMMEDIATELY!!

Students who do NOT clear their accounts will have their registration cancelled and will not receive academic credit for the current semester.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1968

- 10:00 A. M. Departmental Meetings, which include faculty and students, are designed to provide opportunity for discussion of common problems. Places for meetings will be announced by department chairmen.
- 7:30 P. M. Basketball Game. The Lions will play the East Central "Tigers" in Ada. "Let's Go, Big Lions!"
- 8:30 P. M. Christmas Party. The All-School Christmas Party will be held in the Ballroom of the Student Union. This is a semi-formal affair.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1968

- 9:00 A. M. Sunday School will be held in the I. W. Young Auditorium.
- 10:00 Pre-Christmas Services. The Season of Christmas is esteemed as the "Season of the Heart." In keeping with this reverence, the Langston University family will observe the cherished tradition of the Christmas Season. The Sermonic Note will be delivered by the University Chaplain and the combined voices of the University and Concert Choirs will render the immortal "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's inspired MESSIAH.
- 5:30 P. M. Movie. "The Young American."
- 8:00 P. M. Christmas Concert. The Department of Music will present the fourth annual performance of the MESSIAH. This year's performance is unique in that it will be rendered by the combined ninety-five voices of the Concert and University Choirs and accompanied by Langston University's own newly-organized Symphony Orchestra. The "Messiah" will be conducted by Mr. William B. Garcia, Assistant Professor of Voice and Director of the Concert Choir. Soloists for the occasion will be Braque Wilson, Tenor; Kenneth Warren and Warren Price, Baritones; Gwendolyn Hunt and Althea Crawford, Contraltos; and Gwendolyn Tatum and Sharron Bluit, Sopranos.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1968

Christmas Recess begins at 5 P.M. Classwork resumes Monday, January 6, 1969 at 8 p.m.

ITEMS OF INTEREST . . .

Director of Food Services Employed. President William H. Hale announces the addition to the staff of Roger Leslie Sneed to serve as Director of Food Services.

Mr. Sneed, a candidate for the degree in Hotel and Restaurant Administration at Oklahoma State University, has had wide experience in the field of food services. He has served as food production supervisor in the Murray Hall Cafeteria, storeroom operator and cook in the Scott Parker Cafeteria and food production supervisor in the Kerr-Drummond Cafeteria at Oklahoma State University.

Holiday Travel Information. Students who are planning to fly home at the student rate for the Christmas holidays will probably need to leave before the official holiday season. The University will not excuse these students; however, they can use their normal cuts for this purpose. Students should be prepared to show a copy of their tickets to their instructors.

CONGRATULATIONS TO . . .

Miss Linda Parker, a junior chemistry major, who has been chosen as one of six students selected from 10 Negro colleges to study at the Brookhaven National Laboratory in Upton, New York, for the second semester of the present school year.

This opportunity has come to Linda as the results of Langston University's participation in the Regional Cooperative Association in Science and Mathematics (RCASM).

Nathaniel Fowler, sophomore end for the Langston Lions, was named to the 1968 All-Conference Football Team. Ronald Pendarvis, a junior tackle, was named to the second defensive team.

Fowler was number one pass receiver in the Conference with 49 catches for 949 yards and 10 touchdowns. He also topped the league in this department last season as a freshman. He pulled in 40 passes for 820 yards and eight touchdowns in 1967.
