FEBRUARY 24 - MARCH 3, 1967

The first report of the 1967 Fund-Raising Campaign for the Langston University Development Foundation was made at the weekly assembly on February 22. Prizes were won by students whose I.D. Card numbers were pulled. LeVell Hill and Shirley Rolison were each awarded a $2.50 gift certificate to the Varsity Shop; Edward Clinton received a $2.00 movie certificate while James Anderson's prize was a $1.00 gift certificate to the Coffee Shop. Following is a list of students whose numbers are drawn but who, because they were not present at the Assembly, could not claim their prizes: Delores E. Chatman, Joyce Blakely, Willie Mae Jones, Harold W. Cattrell, Norma Jean Hammons, Nilar June Bell, James Earl Denson, Gail Humphrey, Matthew Bagland, Clarence Byars, James Clark, Corzetti Jones, Gloria Anderson, Searcy Burnett, Carl Haynes, William Cohee, Melba Ruth Holt and Norma Jean Collins.

The classes reported as follows: Freshman, $24.00; Sophomore, no report; Junior, $44.00; Senior, $62.00. The senior class having reported raising the largest percentage of its goal was presented the President's appreciation award of $25.00.

James Glover, President of the Beta Kappa Chapter of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, presented President Hale with a check for the Foundation in the amount of $105. Beta Kappa is to be congratulated.

One of the University's excellent musical organizations, the Langston Combo, provided music for the occasion, Roscoe Smith added his fine singing voice for the enjoyment of the audience.

Attorney Amos T. Hall will be guest on Langston campus, Sunday, February 26, 1967. Mr. Hall has been invited as speaker upon the annual observance of Men's Day. He will deliver the message in Morning Meditations at ten o'clock in the college auditorium. Those who are identified with the new movement on the part of University faculty and staff members to help improve life among us will be benefited by being a part of those services when Mr. Hall appears.

The Residence Halls Program, under the sponsorship of Brown Hall, is presenting Dr. Eugene J. Ulrich, Harpsichordist, in recital Sunday, February 26, at 2:30 p. m. in the Ballroom of the Student Union.

Movies for the Week: Sunday, February 26, "Operation CIA" and Wednesday, March 1, "The Alphabet Murders".

President Hale has announced the inauguration of a novel feature to be introduced this spring which should be of interest to all students. At two of the weekly 10:00 a. m. assembly periods between now and the close of the present semester, a valuable prize will be given to the student whose I.D. Card number is drawn. No more than five drawings will be made on each occasion and the holder of the number drawn must be present in order to qualify for the prize. The dates of the drawings will not be revealed previously.

The Great Books Group for students will meet on Monday, February 27, 1967, at 7:00 p. m. in the Faculty Lounge of the Library. The group will discuss Shakespeare's "Tempest". It should be a lively and provocative session.
