NURSERY SCHOOL VALENTINE PARTY - Brenda Bruford

On February 14, at 3:30 p. m. there was an invasion of seventeen little "toddling tots" in the Student Union. What looked like an attack by a planet of small inhabitants turned out to be Langston's Nursery School, under the direction of Mrs. R. J. Grayson.

They arrived to help celebrate St. Valentine's Day with LU's Post Office and Security Office personnel. Mrs. Katherine Stroud, Post Mistress provided the kids with valentine cards and an enclosed lollipop. Her workers Gloria Stamps, Sherl Smith, Andrew Anderson, and Michele Brown aided her. The children were then taken into the television lounge and treated to refreshments.

Carla Cox and Brenda Bufford, representatives from Alpha Kappa Alpha were present to assist in the serving. Chief George Dilahunty and Lt. Orville Cornelius talked to the group about the rules of safety. Student Assistants present were Carolyn Minner, Bonnie Montgomery, Mrs. Brenda Gallimon, and Dona Diggs.

Upon leaving the children showed their appreciation by saying in unison "Thank you, Mrs. Stroud." Mrs. Katherine Stroud put much effort in the preparation that made 17 future "Langston Lions" very happy.
