

3-24-1967

The Langston Letter March 24 - April 3, 1967

Langston University

Follow this and additional works at: http://dclu.langston.edu/archives_langston_letter

Recommended Citation

Langston University, "The Langston Letter March 24 - April 3, 1967" (1967). Langston Letter. Paper 137.
http://dclu.langston.edu/archives_langston_letter/137

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives at Digital Commons @ Langston University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Langston Letter by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Langston University. For more information, please contact jblewis@langston.edu.

The-Langston Letter

PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPT.
Langston, Oklahoma

The Langston Letter is published each Thursday primarily for the interest of the Langston University faculty, staff and students.

MARCH 24-APRIL 3, 1967

MARCH 24-APRIL 3. Spring Vacation, 5:00 p.m., March 24, to 8:00 a.m., April 3.

Miss Gloria Dell Prewitt, Coordinator of the Residence Halls Program, has planned the following activities for the entertainment and enjoyment of students who will be on campus during the Spring Vacation:

Saturday, March 25	8:30 p. m.	Dance and Games
Sunday, March 26	1:00 p. m. 7:00 p. m.	Special Easter Banquet Movie, "The Reluctant Saint"
Wednesday, March 29	7:00 p. m.	Movie, "Screams of Fear"
Friday, March 31	8:00 p. m.	"Fun Time"
Sunday, April 2	4:00 p. m.	Movie, "The Last Angry Man"

ALL of the above activities will be held in the William H. Hale Student Union.

MARCH 29 -

7:30 p. m. The Great Books Discussion Group for faculty and staff members will be held in the Faculty Lounge of the Library. All participants are asked to read On Truth and Falsity by St. Thomas Aquinas for discussion on this date.

APRIL 3 -

6:15 p. m. The Great Books Discussion Group for students will meet in the Faculty Lounge of the Library. Participants will discuss Voltaire's Candide.

A LION'S ROAR TO . . .

Alpha Upsilon Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority for contribution of $150.00 to the Langston University Development Foundation at assembly on March 22, at which time the second fund-raising reports were given.

The Langston University Debate Team who attended the annual Forensic Tournament at Texas Southern University on March 16 and won third place in four debates. Dana Sims, a member of the team, also captured third place in Poetry Interpretation and sixth place in Best Debater.

The Concert Choir who sang to capacity audiences in Wichita, Kansas; Lincoln, Nebraska; St. Paul, Minnesota; Chicago, Illinois; and Detroit, Michigan. The Choir, under the direction of Mr. William B. Garcia, departed for the points mentioned above after rendering music for Founders Day on March 12 and returned to the campus March 18. Glowing reports of the tour from sponsors of the choir have been received by President Hale. The Langston University Development Foundation underwrote the Choir's trip.

NOTES OF INTEREST

President Receives Appointment.

President William H. Hale, who was appointed to the Oklahoma Small Business Advisory Council, was formally presented Membership Certificate in the Assembly Program on Wednesday, March 22, by Mr. E. Bruce Cafky, SBA's Regional Director for the state.

LU Professor.

Dean Inman A. Breaux has asked to be relieved of responsibilities as Dean of Student Affairs because of health as of June 1, 1967. He will continue to serve as Student Financial Aid Officer and will teach courses in the Department of Health and Physical Education. We commend Dean Breaux for his dedicated services as Dean of Students since 1957 and regret the loss of his service in this area. We are pleased that he will continue to work with the financial aid program and teach.

Scholarship Offered.

The Oklahoma State Library Staff is offering a scholarship of $2,500 for graduate study leading to the library science degree. This offer also guarantees full-time employment following graduation. For additional information and application forms, please contact Mr. L. Clark, Librarian.

T. V. Winner.

Miss Frances Barnes, a freshman elementary education major from Spencer, held the lucky I. D. Card number and was the winner of a color T. V. set -- on the third drawing.

The "Sorry About That, Friend," Department. I. D. Card numbers belonging to the following students were also drawn but who, because they were not present, could not claim the prize: First Drawing--Sidney Gordon, a freshman from Tulsa; Second Drawing--Edward Love, also a freshman from Tulsa.

This is the second assembly in which prizes were awarded to students whose I. D. Card numbers were drawn. This feature of the assembly programs was inaugurated by President Hale to encourage student attendance at all assembly programs. Dates of drawings will not be revealed prior to assemblies and the holder of the number drawn must be present in order to qualify for prizes.

Upward Bound Consultant Visits Campus.

Mr. Michael Winston served as consultant to the Upward Bound staff on planning for a training program for twenty student tutor-counselors who will serve during the summer residential program in June and July.

LU Concert Choir.

The Langston University Concert Choir will be seen on Channel 13, KETA-TV from Oklahoma City and Channel 11, KOED-TV from Tulsa on April 6 and 13 at 9:30 p. m. These are Oklahoma's Educational Television stations and both programs are a part of the "Festival of Arts" series.