Mr. Keith Slothower, Director, and Theater Arts' students are remodeling the basement of the I.W. Young Auditorium for a Little Theater. It is being constructed along the lines of the old Mummer's Theater in Oklahoma City. It will seat 100, and will include a carpeted lounge. The first play will be THE TUMULT AND THE SHOUTING.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kendall, assistant Professor in the English Department, and Mrs. Zella Patterson, retired LU professor, were honored as Outstanding Educators at the OEA Convention in Oklahoma City.

Coach Lawrence Cudjoe reports all home basketball games will be played at Oklahoma City Douglass High School and Guthrie High School this season. The gymnasium is being renovated. This has also forced the Physical Education faculty and staff to move their offices and classes to other buildings on campus.

IT'S A BOY! Mr. In Ha: Ro, Mathematics Instructor, was all smiles October 30. Mrs. Ro presented him with a new son, Richard Youshin, born at Stillwater Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Ro also have a daughter.

The Leadership Dynamics Class presented a Letter of Commendation to Gregory Robinson, President of the Student Government Association, on October 29.

Mrs. Ruth E. Swain, assistant Professor of Social Science, appeared on the program at the national meeting of the Western Historical Association held recently in Tulsa. Mrs. Swain's paper was titled, "The History of Langston University."

Students who applied for Tuition Aid Grants and were not approved are to report to the Financial Aid Office in Sanford Hall. Also, Independent students are to report to the FAO if there has been a change "in your income," and students in the Work Study Program must be cleared by the College Work Study Office before going to work, according to the Financial Aid Officer.

Dr. John Montgomery, Poteau veterinarian, is a regent of Oklahoma A&M Colleges, replacing Mr. Herman Duncan of Muskogee. Dr. Montgomery is a graduate of Prairie View A&M, Texas, and Tuskegee Institute, Alabama. His wife, Doris is a member of the Pardon and Parole Board. They have two children, Mildred, a student at the University of Oklahoma, and John II, a student at Prairie View A&M.
