ITEMS OF INTEREST . . .

The next issue of the Langston Letter will be the last of this semester. All information you feel may be of interest or significance should be turned in by no later than 5:00 P.M., Monday, December 10, 1973. Now is the time to let one know what your plans are for the beginning of the Spring Semester, 1974.

CONGRATULATIONS TO: Mr. Thomas "Wildman" Henderson for being selected to the Associated Press First Team All-America Football Team for Small Colleges (This means NAIA & NCAA teams). Also to: Mr. Prinson Poindexter a Third Team All-America AP Small College Selection as well as First Team All-America, Pittsburgh Courier and Mr. Kenneth Payne, First Team All-American Pittsburgh Courier.

RESIDENCE HALLS: The residence halls will officially close for the holiday season, 5:00 P.M. December 20, 1973. They will re-open, January 9, 1974. When leaving the halls please be sure to abide by all regulations pertaining to check-out procedures, i. e., turn your keys in, etc.

PAN-HELL, GREEKS!!!: Folks are saying Greeks aren't doing anything! Well, who's doing something other than Greeks? Since Greeks are expected to show, they are usually the scape-goat for things which cause students to ^{polarize, (Into Clique Groups).}

LANGSTON UNIVERSITY'S GREEK LETTER Organizations see things contrary to what folks are saying. SUGGESTED Programs for Greek Letter Activities have been drawn up by the LU Pan-Hellenic Council. More suggestions are welcome. If you have suggestions or questions, please see Mrs. Alice Swain in the Reading Laboratory. Your interest will be greatly appreciated.
