UPWARD BOUND

The Upward Bound Program at Langston University announced that one of its 1972-73 students, Miss Regina Holleman, has been named to "Who's Who Among American High School Students."

Miss Regina A. Holleman, a senior at Northeast Senior High School was recently notified that she is to be featured in the Seventh Annual Edition of "Who's Who Among American High School Students" 1972-73, the largest student award publication in the nation.

Students from over 18,000 public, private, and parochial high schools throughout the country are recognized for their leadership in academics, athletics, activities or community service in the book. Less than 2% of the junior and senior class students nation-wide are awarded this recognition.

Regina Holleman is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Wilburn of 3931 Springlake Drive, Oklahoma City. She is active in Modern Dance Club, Announcer's Club, Dance Mothers of America, French Club and also has won awards such as President of Modern Dance Club, Poet Laureate, Miss Book 1971, and Miss Creative in Music.

In addition to having her biography published in the book, Regina will also compete for one of ten $1,000.00 scholarship awards funded by the publishers and will be invited to participate in the firm's annual "Survey of High Achievers" later in the academic year.

Regina plans to attend Langston University in the fall.

CONCERT CHOIR

The Langston University Concert Choir will perform with the Oklahoma Symphony Orchestra March 3-8. They will present "Sahdji", which is based on African folk lore by William Grant Steele. The choir is in need of 50 additional voices. Rehearsal is daily from 6-7 p.m. in Hargrove Music Hall.
