Langstonite Awarded

KRMG radio station of Tulsa, Oklahoma gives a "Pat on the Back" each day to a local citizen who should be recognized for some notable deed. Their "Pat on the Back" for Friday, February 16, went to Mrs. Robbie Brown Roberts, a KRMG receptionist, who saved the life on a two year old neighbor boy who had stopped breathing, by giving him mouth to mouth resuscitation.

Mrs. Roberts is a 1969 graduate of Langston University and the sister of Mrs. Ann Robinson, a faculty member of Langston University.

Trip to Africa

A West African educational-travel tour especially designed to meet the needs of teachers and students who desire to learn about African culture and society is being offered by the African-American Institute. The cost of the trip will be approximately $700.00.

This will be a 28 day tour from July 26-August 27, 1973 with 14 days in Ghana, 6 days in Togo & Dahomey, and 8 days in Nigeria.

The University of Ghana, Ghana's University of Science & Technology in Kumasi, and the University of Cape Coast, Ghana; the University of Ibadan and the University of Lagos, Nigeria will be the principal academic centers. Lectures, seminars, and workshops will be held at all program locations.

Langston University will award six semester hours credit upon successful completion of the program and enrollment and payment of said fees.

For more information about the African-American Institute please contact Mrs. Ally Mack, Dr. Joan Coleman, Miss Portia McCollum, or Dr. E. L. Holloway.
