ITEMS OF INTEREST

COMMENCEMENT

Langston University will hold its Annual Commencement Exercise Saturday evening, May 12, at 7:30 p.m. in Anderson Stadium on the University campus. The Baccalaureate Degree will be awarded to approximately 200 students representing thirteen states.

The commencement address will be delivered by Mrs. Cernoria D. Johnson, Director of the National Urban League Washington Bureau.

Mrs. Johnson, a graduate of Langston University, has served the Urban League for almost 28 years. Prior to establishing the Washington Bureau in 1962, she served as Executive Director of Urban League affiliates in Fort Worth, Texas and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

NAVY INFORMATION TEAM

The Navy Information Team will be on campus May 10 - 11 to talk with interested men and women in all classes. The team will be located in the Student Union.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE AWARD

A first place plaque was awarded to Mrs. E. Kendall at the State Oklahoma Foreign Language Meeting, May 5, on the University of Oklahoma campus. Mrs. Kendall, director, received the award on behalf of Langston University for outstanding achievement and record for the activities during Foreign Language Week, April 23 - 27. Activities are judged on organization, participation, and originality. The Langston Foreign Language Organization would like to thank the publicity department, the dignitaries, and the students who helped to make the event successful.

TURKEY WINNER ANNOUNCED

The Langston Community Action Program Committee would like to congratulate Emily Ardion on winning a 12 lbs. turkey. The turkey drawing was held during the Community Gospel Singing and Street Sign Project Rally, May 4. The first estimate of funds raised is $150.00. Hortense C. Owens serves as president of the committee.

"TOLSON MARKER" DEDICATION

The dedication of the "Tolson Marker" will be held in the Little Theatre, Saturday, May 12, at 3:00 p. m.

The Unveiling Services will be held in front of the Tolson Home in Langston City immediately after the dedication ceremony.

The ceremony is sponsored by the Creative Writing Club, O. L. Toliver, sponsor.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION NEWS

The Baptist Student Union elected new officers for 1973-74 school year. They are: Bernard Warren, president; Sam Hill, vice-president; Keith Northington, secretary; Doris Holland, missions-prayer chairman; and Dr. John W. Coleman, faculty advisor.

At the close of the recent meeting of the National BSU Retreat, Verlene Farmer, BSU Director at Langston University, was named National Faculty Advisor.

The director, officers, and members of the Baptist Student Union deeply appreciate the many acts of kindness performed by the administration, faculty, staff, and student body during the recent meeting of the National Baptist Student Union Retreat. The retreat would not have been the success it was without the many favors and concern extended to us.

Verlene B. Farmer
BSU Director

DINNER FOR RETIRING PERSONNEL
