ITEMS OF INTEREST . . .

Card of Thanks:

Willis and Martha Brown wish to tender their gratitude and appreciation for the many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy proffered by the Langston University family and friends on the occasion of the demise of Mr. Brown's sister on November 3, 1969.

Seventy-one members of the Humanities 2214 classes attended the Wednesday evening (October 31) performance of "Man of La Mancha" presented in the Oklahoma City Civic Center Music Hall. The Broadway musical presents the life of Cervantes and of his hero, Don Quixote. Humanities students enjoyed this unique and entertaining introduction to Don Quixote, which they are now reading and discussing in class. The trip was made possible through the support of the Langston University Development Foundation.

RERUN

The Yearbook Staff regretfully announces that out of an enrollment of over 1,200 students only 350 students took pictures for the 1970 Yearbook. The Photographer will return to the campus on NOVEMBER 18 at 10 a.m. to take additional pictures. If you did not avail yourself of the opportunity before, have your picture taken on the new date scheduled. The place will be the Faculty Lounge of the Student Union. (Persons who did not see their proofs on Wednesday, November 12, can see them on this date.)
